

7 LIFESTYLE=MEMORIES ARE PRICELESS

Jan and Bill in Johannesburg, South Africa to Pretoria, South Africa clear back to Aspen, Colorado

At the Johannesburg airport, we met with Caroline and Kristin of the South Africa DSA and began exploring the possibilities of Jan speaking in the future in South Africa for Direct Selling and Network Marketing companies. Sue met us too and we went directly to our friends Robin and Sue Bell's for a delightful, fun and happy dinner party! We all had so much to share about our adventures in Africa! We stayed once again as the house guests of the DuPreez. Their hospitality of letting us use their guest house as our home base in South Africa is so appreciated. The following day we departed for beautiful Cape Town.

LIFESTYLE=MEMORIES ARE PRICELESS Jan and Bill in Cape Town, South Africa

We jetted to Cape Town and were met by long time friends and student, Alma and Rion Gierke. They invited us to their home for cocktails and Alma wanted to share with me her home office for Star Accessories. Their beautiful 3 story home is built on the side of a mountain overlooking part of CapeTown. Beautiful views and fabulous home. Alma is slowly taking over the ground floor for her expanding business of costume jewelry, essential oils and leather goods. I shopped all afternoon looking at all her products and had a ball! What great products! I love them and am a great customer for her! We then went to the Western Cape of CapeTown to the fantastic Arabella Spa and Golf Resort for dinner and stayed the night there. We had a fun dinner together catching up as we had not seen each other in several years. We had a fabulous suite on the golf course looking across the bay to Hemanus, a wealthy suburb of CapeTown. The following day, we had a private guide and driver take us in a Mercedes to Hemanus for lunch and whale watching right from our private table under a tree right on the cliffs of the Western Cape! Amazing fun! That afternoon Bill picked out the most fabulous gold and diamond new ring for Jan.! Wow! Another ring for the Lady of the Rings! The following day, Alma and Rion picked us up and transported us to the Amway Building where there is a jewelry store Jan wanted to check out and check out she did, she bought a fabulous gold ring with the Big 5 animals on it all with tiny diamond eyes! Next stop..... the absolutely glorious, Leading Hotel of the World, Table Bay right at the Waterfront of CapeTown, filled to the brim with shops and restaurants, and local people performing all kinds of singing and dance. We had a lovely lunch with Alma, Rion and their son Andre' and when they left we went on a major shopping spree for some new dishes. We had them all shipped back because they were so beautiful and we wanted them insured. They are the gold and black of Africa and stunning! And once again, Bill surprised Jan this time with TWO diamond rings! One with the Big 5 animals on it all with Diamond eyes! And another South African design of diamonds. Talk about the Lady of the Rings! Jan's jewelry box is overflowing with beautiful rings with precious gems from all over the world. Ahhhh.....the lifestyle! You can have it all in Network Marketing!

Our last evening in Africa, we went to the Table Bay lounge for late after dinner drinks and stayed in our fabulous suite overlooking Table Mountain. Our view from our room was spectacular at night with the lights of the harbor and the Water Front! The last day we were in Cape Town, Alma and Rion came with us and we all took a sailboat ride out along the Water Front!

LIFESTYLE=MEMORIES ARE PRICELESS Jan and Bill back to Madrid, Spain, on to Florida

Off we took to the airport and onward all the way from Cape Town back to Johannesburg all the way to Madrid! Whew! What a long haul, over 11 hours! Our driver was there to pick us up in Madrid and take us to the Miguel Hotel and we slept for hours. The next day we spent the afternoon at David Lemon's spa trying to get over jet lag. The following day we departed Spain all the way to Philadelphia!

We overnighted at the swanky Park Hyatt Grand Hotel right downtown and slept for 12 hours! We answered emails and got these special reports ready to be put on our website before jetting onward to Tampa, Florida where we have a Jaguar awaiting us so that we can drive onward to the beach to meet our daughters, Ashley and Sarah for a late dinner!

It was so great to see our beautiful daughters. Wow! Are they ever glamorous! We had so much fun! We shopped, we spent a day at the spa, we had a fantastic Sunday Brunch at the Ritz, spent some time with Jeff Roberti and his brothers, watched movies, took walks on the beach, and Jan fixed a Thanksgiving dinner on our last night together. We always have so much to be thankful for. This year the girls won't be coming home for Thanksgiving so it was a special family dinner together before we departed. It was not easy saying goodbye to the girls but they are independent and are doing just great enjoying their new life in Florida.

LIFESTYLE=MEMORIES ARE PRICELESS Jan and Bill home at Aspenglow, October, 2003

We jetted back to Philadelphia, and onward to Denver. We rented a car to bring back all of our international luggage and was it ever wonderful to open the door to the stunning entry way to Aspenglow! Wow! Home never looked better! Although we came back to having to do a major remodel of one wing of Aspenglow, it was HOME! And not only that, the Aspen trees had all turned gold and orange and the views were so spectacular we could NOT believe our eyes! The mountaintops peaks are covered with snow, blue sky galore and the remodel well underway. The new carpets ordered, new bathroom going in for one of the guest suites, new furniture ordered, dining room chairs being re-covered, awaiting the palate of goodies sent back from South Africa, getting photos prepared, framing photos and just remembering this fantastic trip! It was so special to have our son, Clayton here awaiting our arrival. It was so good to put our arms around him. We had been so far apart by that time for almost 2 months. We got the Porsche out and have had a ball since being home! Home sweet home, there truly is no place like home. 14 airplane rides later, home again!

Jan's Wisdom: There is a day that you get into Network Marketing but nothing happens until the day Network Marketing gets into you. Once you decide to go for greatness nothing can stop you.
